Public Meetings for the Relief of Soldiers' Families.

We have been requested to give notice that public meetings will be held at the court ground in each precinct in this county, on Saturday the 24th inst. for the purpose of ascertaining the number of families who need relief under the late conscription.

These meetings will appoint one or more delegates to a county meeting to be held on the Saturday following at Jacksonville, for the purpose, among other things, of adopting a lower and more uniform standard or rate of prices for provisions sold to soldiers' families; in order that the burden of need needed may fall more equally than at present, where some few noble and liberal men are doing all, and many others doing nothing.

Jail Broken and six prisoners taken out.

On Monday night last at about 9 o'clock a party of armed men appeared at the County Jail in this place, called the Jailor out and represented to him that they had a prisoner to commit to the Jail (giving the name of a man that there had been some effort made to arrest). They succeeded in getting the Jailor to unlock the door and immediately seized him and held him fast until they had succeeded in taking and tying six prisoners that had been confined in the Jail. The parties called out the names of the prisoners they wanted, namely: M. D. Sanders, N. B. Sanders, T. P. Sanders, M. J. Watson, C. W. Collins, and N. T. Harper, all we believe from St. Clair County and reported deserters. The parties who took these men from the Jail are represented as having been well armed and well mounted. They left with the prisoners and are supposed to have gone in the direction of St. Clair County.

The above is about the substance of the statement given by the Jailor.

Tallahadega Reporter.

We have since learned verily, that the men mentioned above were all found hanged on Friday afterwards, two and a half miles from Talladega, near the Conscript camp. Deserters stories and unionists it seems are learning some very wholesome lessons of late. We hope that their leaders and coadjutors Lincoln's robbers and murders in Rosecrans army may soon be taught lessons equally salutary by Gen. Bragg and his brave army.

President Davis passed through Atlanta and Marietta, on the 9th inst. on his way to Gen. Bragg's headquarters. At each place he made a brief address to the citizens assembled from the depot platform, speaking hopefully of the condition of affairs and complimenting Georgia soldiers and ladies—the first for their glorious achievements on every battlefield & the latter for their exertions in behalf of the wounded in the late battle. The President was accompanied by Gen. Longstreet, Breckinridge and Pemberton and Gov. Brown and Sen. Cobb. We have seen no further information of his progress, or intimation of the purpose of his visit. It may be on a hasty tour of inspection, or he may desire to remain until a decisive movement is made, in this now most important field of action.

Our Circuit Court

Adjourned on Monday last, after having been in session the previous week. Hon. J. T. HEFLIN presiding, and J. H. CALDWELL, Esq. Solicitor. Our new Sheriff and Deputy, Messrs. Owens and Willingham, we learn, discharged their difficult and responsible duties to the entire satisfaction of the Court and parties litigant; and our old Clerk, G. B. Deubitt, Esq. fully sustained his long established and well earned reputation, as an excellent, correct, and efficient officer. An excellent Grand Jury too, was faithful in the discharge of most important duties.

A considerable amount of business, on both the civil and criminal dockets was disposed of; among the latter, some heavy fines most justly imposed.

Judge Heflin, it is probable, may not be popular with that class of people who are ever found impatient under and complaining of the wholesome restraints of good laws; but his thorough knowledge of law, his stability, strict impartiality and firm administration of justice, can but commend him to all law-abiding people. We believe him to be the right man, in the right place, and at the right time; for surely, when crime of almost every grade is stalking abroad, is not the time to paralyze the arm of justice, take from the good citizen the protection of law, or relax in its firm administration.

tion. Judge Heflin makes the law, as far as his duties and responsibilities are concerned, what it should be, a terror and means of punishment to evil doers and a praise and protection to them that do well.

We forgot in our previous issues to inform our readers of the gratifying tidings which reached us from our neighbors of Oxford and vicinity.

For several months past, many robberies and other depredations had been committed on the citizens near Antioch Church: in fact the audacity of the depredators reached such a height, that the peaceful citizens were not only endangered of their property but their lives. The peace-loving and loyal citizens could stand it no longer, their indignation was aroused, and they formed in a body, and with the assistance of a squad of Capt. Hall Lewis' company, set to work. They scoured the country known as Kentuck and California, and succeeded in arresting about 27 of the robbers, who proved to be deserters from the army or those connected, in harboring them or concealing their ill-gotten goods, and sharing their disloyal sentiments. A Courtmartial, consisting of the best citizens of that vicinity tried the offenders, and punished them according to their guilt. Several of them we learn, went the short road to Talladega, while others were sent to Gen. Bragg who forwarded them to the army in Virginia. Others volunteered in some military company, and several have left to seek a home in Mississippi or South Carolina.

Thus by the energy of our citizens the country has been cleared of deserters, disloyal ones rooted out, and the country is freed from a class of population who are a terror to the people and an injury to our cause.

HEAD QUARTERS, Wheeler's Cavalry Corps, On the river near Courtland, Ala. Oct 12. / Mr. J. P. GRANT—Sir—Gen. Wheeler with his Cavalry has just made a circuit around the enemy's army, by the way of Marietta and Shelbyville, completely destroying the Railroad for about 20 or 25 miles, destroyed an abundance of stores, six or seven hundred wagons, and capturing a thousand prisoners and about 3,000 mules. Yet we have to mourn the loss of Benj. Easley. He was killed on the 30th day of Sept. in a fight at Farmington, while sending square to the enemy, within 75 yards of them. He was shot through the head and fell dead from his horse; the only man killed during the raid. Wm. Shaw and Wm. Stagions were captured. We have nine others out on a scout that we have not heard from, yet we think they will come out safe.

J. M. ANDERSON.

In addition to the intelligence by the above letter from Lieut. Anderson, we learn from Mr. Wm R. Hubbard of Wheeler's Escort, who handed us the letter, the painful news, that Capt. Wm. White, of this place was dangerously if not mortally wounded, having been shot through the body ranging from the point of the right shoulder blade to the left side.

John Brock, Esq. will start from Blue Mountain to Virginia on the morning of the 27th inst. and will take letters and clothing, properly boxed up, to any of the soldiers in the Virginia army.

Prisoners recently captured in East Tennessee report the death of Col. Bob Johnson, Andy Johnson's second son. He is said to have died at Huntsville, Alabama, in a drunken fit. It will be recollected that his oldest son was thrown from his horse in Nashville, some five or six months ago, and killed, while on a drunken frolic.

Pike and his Indian army.

We perceive by Northern accounts, says the Mississippian, that Albert Pike is again in the field, notwithstanding his bad treatment by Holmes and Hindman. He has seven thousand Indians in good fighting trim, and is moving to take a place in the next battle in the trans-Mississippi department. We hope that under Kirby Smith and Gen. Price, Gen. Pike will get along more harmoniously than he formerly did, and that he will not find it necessary to make any more exposures of corruption and falsehood through the public prints.

An Incident of the Battle of Chickamauga.

We are permitted by a friend to make an extract from a private letter, which relates an interesting incident of the battle of Chickamauga, which deserves to be recorded. Premising that Lieut. Renfro was a citizen of Athens, in this county, and was a member of Capt. Hart's company, now commanded by Capt. Henry, and that Col. Weedon was the Lieut. Col. of the 22d Alabama Regiment, we subjoin the extract:

Montgomery Advertiser.

Renfro took the colors of his regiment early in the fight on Sunday last (battle of Chickamauga) and carried them far ahead of the main body of the regiment until he was killed. A good deal of the ground over which his regiment passed was an open field, and as the regiment passed through it was exposed to a murderous fire from both artillery and infantry, yet Lieut. Renfro carried his colors proudly through it, and fell at the far side of the field within twenty paces of the enemy. As soon as Lieut. Renfro fell the Lt. Col. of the regiment (Lieut. Col. John Weedon) seized the colors, but had scarcely straightened himself before he fell lifeless across Lieut. Renfro's dead body, and the flag partially covered both of them.

The News, by telegraph and otherwise, since our last issue, may be briefly summed up as follows:

The Yankees opened a heavy fire on the 7th, from a mortar battery at Moccasin point, upon Lookout mountain, continuing four hours, for the purpose as supposed, of ascertaining the position of our batteries, but failed to elicit a response.

All was quiet at Charleston on the 10th. Although the Yankees make big threats, bombarding Charleston, it is not believed they can do much mischief from the distance they are at, five miles.

A heavy cavalry skirmish occurred at Calpepper on the morning of the 10th in which the Yankees were driven back four miles, and one hundred of them captured with their camp equipage.

Gen. Tom Green, on the 23rd ult. surprised a Yankee force of 3,000 that had left their gunboats, and encamped on the bayou Fordoche, east of the Atchafalaya. He killed at least 100 of them, captured four hundred and sixty-one, and drove the rest to their gunboats.

Movements are on foot in every county in Texas, to furnish the families of soldiers with corn at a maximum price of fifty cents per bushel. In many of the counties it is given and delivered to the families without any charge.

The result of the Sabine Pass fight shows it to be the most brilliant of the age. Forty-two men, all told, were attacked in a battery by four gunboats, backed up by a fleet of transports of twenty vessels; carrying over ten thousand men. We captured two of the gunboats with all on board; crippled a third, which afterwards sunk at sea, and sent the whole force back where it started from.

The number of killed and wounded Federals was greater than our entire force; the number of prisoners taken was eight times our entire force, the number of guns captured was more than double the number we had and of five times the weight of metal. These men were the Jeff Davis Guards, a company of Irish volunteers raised in the City of Houston in 1861 for the war. Silver medals have been presented to each member of the garrison by the citizens of the city.

A special Washington dispatch to the Herald says that for two months past the question of the settlement of the impending difficulties between the North and South, without further bloodshed, had been under consideration at Washington and Richmond. The negotiations have not yet reached any definite proposition.

Letter from East Tennessee.

The Latest from Knoxville—The Blue Bellies Preparing to Sheddle Citizens Imprisoned.

CLEVELAND TENN., Oct. 7th, 1863. Knoxville Register: As I have just seen a man from Knoxville who left there on the 2d inst. I will give you the news he brings. He states that on last Thursday eighteen pieces of artillery and all the forces at that place except about two thousand, left for Loudon. On the same day he heard that the Federal forces above had fallen back to New Market, except some scouting parties. They had become very much alarmed. Their General Carter, had sent his own and some other families out into Kentucky on last Monday. My informant says he heard Federal officers saying that they never expected to hold East Tennessee. He says there are some three hundred and fifty citizens in prison at Knoxville he says the Southern men were very much lifted up about General Bragg's victory at Chickamauga.

From a reliable source I learn the Federals broke up camp at Athens Sunday last and fell back to Sweetwater. Their pickets yesterday were at Mouse Creek. On Monday last a scout of some twelve men dashed into Calhoun and fired on some boys wounding one by the name of Bragg. I hope to be able to inform you in a day or so that McMillan is clean of the Blue Bellies.

Value, East Tennessee.

The Richmond Examiner of the 7th inst. says:

Though the Federal Union and the Confederates have now in the field more powerful armies than at any previous period in the war and though they are literally face to face at Charleston, Chattanooga, and on the Rapidan, the most peaceful disposition seems to pervade the bosoms of the opposing hosts. There is no one sound of battle from all our wide border bristling as it is with hostile bayonets. The enemy's advance has been checked in Northern Virginia, his plans of destruction and desolation defeated at Charleston, and the angry tide that burst in from the Southwest has been partially rolled back at Chickamauga. The Yankees are every where foiled and the Confederates seem not ready to attempt his expulsion from our territory. We can better afford this inactivity than the enemy. With him not to continue to advance is to admit failure.

Gen. Gilmore is doing nothing at Charleston but marching and countermarching his negro regiments on Morris Island, while the monitor-monsters blockade the port of Charleston. Making the blockade effective is all that is accomplished by the number of lives and the amount of power and shot that have been expended during the most memorable siege of modern times. Gilmore may throw a few shells at Charleston, but their effect is little to be dreaded, the distance between his batteries and the city being five and not four miles as previously stated.

A Chance for a Good Bargain.

A Gentleman requests us to state that he has for sale a Good Piano, but little used, not at blockade prices, but upon reasonable terms. Further information by inquiry at this Office.

Lincoln, it is stated, says that God has revealed to him, (we suppose after the manner of Mormon revelations,) that he must hold on to his office in order to subjugate Southern Rebels. A second revelation may inform him that he is the second Pharaoh.

In the election notice published last week, a mistake occurred in putting Wednesday instead of Tuesday the 3rd of November.

The friends of Lt. Col. J. O. RANNEY, announce him as a candidate for County Commandant of Home Reserves.—Election Wednesday next 4th Nov.

The friends of R. D. R. WILLIAMS, announce him as a candidate for County Commandant of State Militia.—Election Tuesday next, 3d November.

Prisoners.—Whenever the Yankees get on excess of a few thousand prisoners they become obstinate and overbearing and refuse to carry out their plainly understood agreement for exchange, as has been recently the case. It is noticeable too that they treat their prisoners with a great deal more inhumanity, when they have the advantage of numbers. This was the case after the capitulation of Vicksburg when our prisoners at Port Delaware were compelled to drink filthy ditch water, which caused them to die by hundreds to such an extent that it aroused the indignation of even the Yankee Medical staff, who remonstrated against it, but without any permanent reform.

Success has attended our arms on every field recently, and it is announced under date of the 23d inst from Richmond, that there are 12,000 prisoners retained in that city. We venture that so soon as we get a few more the faithless and hypocritical Yankees will become as pliant and accommodating as could be desired.

Gen. Grant and Rosecranz.

The latest Northern intelligence received at Richmond on the 25th inst, says:

Grant has been ordered to supersede Rosecranz his movements beyond Chattanooga without orders from the Government at Washington having given offence to the military authorities there. Rosecranz has gone to Cincinnati.

We are glad that the Yankees still adhere to petulant, short-sighted policy which can but prove disastrous to their arms. We have no doubt that Rosecranz is an abler General than Grant, though he may not have been so successful. The greatest generals are liable to some disasters when they do occur unless wholly demoralising, a general and his army will make an extraordinary exertion to retrieve their fallen fortunes, than under any other circumstances. Defeats are sometimes advantages and victories misfortunes, as was once supposed to be the case with us, and our enemies. Generals placed in their positions cannot probably understand them as well as their predecessors, and in their impatience to fulfil public expectation and liable to commit still more fatal blunders. Rosecranz is no doubt glad to be released from his dilemma, and Grant may very soon have the laurels of Vicksburg dimmed by the disasters of Chattanooga.

Lt. W. A. Beal, will start for the 4th Regt. on the 30th inst., and will take letters and clothing for Co. K. 1st Regt. with Judge Wood, by the 25th.

Late News.

From the Home Courier.
Summary of news by Telegraph.
From the Front.—The enemy are said to be building water works above their pontoon bridges to prevent their being swept away by rain's floating down against them.

A dispatch from Lee to Cooper on the 21st states that Stuart on the 19th opposed the advance of Kilpatrick's division of cavalry, while Fitz Lee attacked his flank and rear. The enemy was routed and pursued until he reached his infantry support at Haymarket. At Gordonsville 200 prisoners with horses and eight wagons and ambulances were captured.

A special dispatch to the Richmond Enquirer from Staunton, on the 21st says that Inboden entered Charlottesville on Sunday surprising and bringing off 450 prisoners and some valuable property.

About 1200 prisoners captured during Lee's advance movement had arrived in Richmond.

A flag of truce boat with a large number of women and children on board arrived at Suffolk from Norfolk.

Official information from Meridian, Miss., reports the Yankees retreating to Big Black rapidly and being pursued by our cavalry. One regiment entered Clinton in their retreat and burned some houses. The loss on either side not reported. President Davis left Meridian on the 20th for Enterprise.

At Charleston on the 20th our batteries continued their fire on the Yankees who appeared in larger numbers than usual at Gregg and Wagner. Another Monitor has arrived making in all five. The Ironsides for the first time since the attack steered round Cummings Point evidently making a trial of her Machinery.

On the 21st a reconnoitering party of the enemy, in barges, was discovered near Sumpter between twelve and one o'clock at night and driven away with grape shot.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS IN EAST TENNESSEE.

We have reliable information that our cavalry under Cols. Dibble and Morrison have achieved a brilliant success at Philadelphia East Tennessee, capturing 700 prisoners 6 pieces of artillery 5 wagons loaded with stores 10 ambulances and all the cavalry equipments of the prisoners, together with a good many horses, mules camp equipages &c.—Atlanta Intelligencer.

Wheeler's Exploits.—The Atlanta Intelligencer learns through Major Hope, further particulars of Wheeler's recent expedition in Tennessee:

He captured upwards of eleven hundred and sixty-five wagons, in the Sequatchie valley 1,000 of which he destroyed, and the remainder he succeeded in bringing safely across the Tennessee. He shot upwards of 3,500 mules, and brought out with him nearly 1,000 horses and mules. At McMinnville he destroyed 30 days rations for Rosecranz's army including 1,500 sacks of green coffee and 2,500 barrels of parched coffee, with other stores in proportion. At McMinnville he also destroyed two trains of cars loaded for Chattanooga and also the rail road for nearly fifteen miles.

The Yankees have given several concerts in Knoxville. The front seats are assigned to the negro wenchers of the city who are escorted to church, and to places of amusement by Federal soldiers and officers. Negro bulls are frequent in which the belles are Ethiopian damsels and Federal officers the gayest gallants. The Federals at Knoxville have not the most remote idea that drag content places a movement on that city. They were engaged in plundering the country every where. Great numbers of people from the country have come into the city begging for bread.

Atlanta Register.

Napoleon's Tolédo.

The Richmond Examiner of Saturday prints the following conspicuously at the head of its news columns:
"The Vicomte de St. Roman has been sent by the French Government to ours to negotiate for the transportation of the tobacco bought for France by French agents."

The Confederate States Government has at last consented to allow the tobacco to leave the country, provided the French Government will send its own vessels for it.

The latter will send French ships, accompanied by armed convoys.

To this the United States Government objects in toto.

Vicomte de St. Roman is now making his way to New York to send the result of his mission, through the French Consul, to the Emperor.

The War.—Meade has undoubtedly got in his hole. He ran like a man. We picked up from two to three thousand prisoners, and gave the rest of his men such a demoralization that he will hardly be able to hold them again. They followed whether he led this time, but it will depend on the direction, perhaps, whether they will do it again. [Richmond Star.]

STATE OF ALABAMA, Calhoun County.

Orphan's Court, Special Term, Oct. 23th, 1863.

This day came A. F. Allen, Administrator of the estate of S. A. Allen, decd., and filed his accounts and vouchers for a final settlement of said estate. It is therefore ordered by the court, that Monday the 30th day of November next be set for auditing and allowing said account and vouchers, and making said settlement. It is further ordered that notice of said settlement be given to all persons interested, by publication in the Jacksonville Republican a weekly newspaper published in said county, for three successive weeks, prior to said 30th day of November, to be and appear at my office at the court house in said county, on said day, and contest the said settlement if they think proper. Witness, A. Woods, Judge of Probate, at office this 28th day of October, 1863. A. WOODS, Judge of Probate. Oct. 31.

CHICKAMAUGA, Sept. 22, 1863.
Mr. Grant.—It has been long since the readers of your valuable paper in DeKalb Co. Ala. have heard of the 3d Confederate Cavalry. I think it was about the opening of Spring, that you were informed that Lt. Col. Wm. N. Estes of DeKalb Co. was promoted to the Colonelcy of said Regt. Now at the inception of winter I write to chronicle the death of that gallant and much honored officer. Col. Estes had, from the beginning of our retrograde movement from Tennessee, borne himself in true knightly and chivalric style in oft-repeated contests with the vandals full on the 17th inst., in McLenore's Cove, at Davis' Cross Roads, Walker county, Ga. the brave Estes poured out his blood in defence of the country and once he loved so well. He fell, gallantly leading a charge of his Regt., after having driven the foe over two miles, and breathed his last in the arms of his devoted followers—telling them, "He died in defence of his country, being entirely reconciled with his fate." Poor fellow! He is gone from amongst us, and expressed himself as being satisfied with his untimely end. There was no braver man than he—there was no nobler nor purer man and patriot—a more warm-hearted friend was never known. His sad fate has caused me to feel as if I were in the emburnt cheek of the sturdy and brave soldiers who have shared the toils, the privations and perils of the deeply lamented Estes. Requiescat in pace. May this be his epitaph. DEKALB. Sept. 18th, 1863.

The Staff and Line Officers of the 3d Confederate Cavalry Regt. met to adopt Resolutions expressive of their feelings upon the death of their late lamented Colonel, Wm. N. Estes. On motion, Capt. Daniel Clayton was called to the chair, and Adj. T. Nicholson requested to act as Secretary.

On motion, Capt. Rice, Resolved: That the committee appointed to draft Resolutions expressive of their feelings upon the death of the late lamented Col. Estes. The committee after a brief absence reported the following preamble and resolutions: Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, to take from our midst the Col. of the 3d Confederate Regt., Col. W. N. Estes, who was killed on the 17th inst. by the enemy, while gallantly leading his regiment as skirmishers against the common enemy of our country. Col. Estes was a man of great and daring courage—noble, generous and kind to his command, and ever ready to lead his regiment to conquest and victory—without a murmur, he quietly expired in the arms of his Regt. with his face toward the foe, and a sweet smile of satisfaction lit up his countenance, just before his spirit had taken its flight, as he beheld his men rushing upon the hated foe, to avenge his death, and relieve his country from the vile invader—therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Col. Estes, the regiment has lost a friend; our country a brave and gallant leader, and a noble pledge ourselves to avenge his death, at any and at all times when brought into proximity with the enemy of our Confederacy.

2d, Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be furnished the family of Colonel Estes, who have our warmest sympathy and kindest regards. Also copies be furnished the Chattanooga Rebel and Jacksonville Republican for publication. The meeting adjourned. Capt. D. CLAYTON, Chm. D. L. NICHOLSON, Sec'y.

DIED, in Jacksonville, on the 13th of Oct. TOMMY, daughter of Chappell and Ann Cannon, aged about 17 months. Little Tommy was a lovely child, the idol of the family. Her mother offered up many prayers that she might live, but the Saviour, that loves little children, bade her little spirit come home to heaven, to join in songs of praise to God the Father through eternal ages. Her little spirit is freed from sickness, sorrow, pain and death, and dwells with Jesus in that bright world of bliss. Parents prepare to meet little Tommy in heaven, where parting is no more. Methinks little Tommy will be standing on the other shore, with outstretched arms to welcome father and mother home. My little one, my fair one, thou canst not come to me. But never draws the numbered hours, when I shall go to thee. And thou perchance with a smile, and golden harp in hand. Will be the first to welcome me, to my Emmanuel's land. A. O. C.

The Election.

The Militia Act, approved August 20th, 1863, directs that after the enumeration is made, an election shall be ordered for each class, in the several counties of the State.

The Governor has further directed, that wherever the number of voters in either class in a Beat does not exceed 25, then such Beat or Beats must be consolidated with some contiguous beat forming a new one, and numbered accordingly. The rolls for this county show that the different beats will not average more than ten persons subject to duty in class No. 2, or State militia, consequently have, in conformity with the above directions, consolidated the beats in this county, as shown by the notice of election given by the Sheriff for class No. 2, or State militia; therefore all persons subject to duty in the State militia, will cast their votes at the place indicated for holding the election in said new militia beats. For instance, all of class No. 2, in the old Beats 1, 3 and 8, will vote at Jacksonville, electing but one Officer for the three old beats, and so with the others. Class No. 1, or Home Reserves, will hold their election in the same old beats, the number in each one being sufficiently large to authorize it. No one will be allowed to vote in the election of the election of the 1st day, but those subject to duty in the State militia, or class No. 2, and no one will vote in the 2nd election, but those subject to duty in the Home Reserves. The returns to be made to the undersigned.

It is to be hoped that the elections will be generally attended, and good and efficient men elected; remembering that in these times of trouble, every man is called upon to do his whole duty, especially in matters of this kind.

Wm. M. HAMES, Special Aid for Calhoun county.
